Dear Dr Hogan

I am delighted that the Minister for the Arts, the Hon. Elise Archer MP, has approved a grant of $2 986 towards the creation and presentation of new work at Craft ACT.

A panel of peer assessors met on Monday 6 and Tuesday 7 August 2018 to consider all applications to the round. A list of all recipients is available at: www.arts.tas.gov.au/recipients

What to do next?

You will find important information on accepting and managing your grant at: www.arts.tas.gov.au/successfulapplicants

Please read this information before you sign and return the grant Deed.

The grant is subject to certain terms and conditions and must comply with State Treasury regulations. It is also subject to the attached Deed being signed by you and returned to Arts Tasmania within 21 days of the date of this letter.

If we do not receive the signed Deed within this time, the offer will lapse without further notice. If you believe you will have difficulties in returning the Deed within 21 days please contact Arts Tasmania on 03 6165 6666 as soon as possible.

Please send Arts Tasmania an invoice for 90 per cent of the grant, plus GST if applicable. This invoice should accompany the signed Deed. The remaining 10 per cent will be paid upon acquittal.

What if the project changes?

You will need to contact Arts Tasmania before you make any changes to your funded activities.

You will find guidelines on changing your project at: www.arts.tas.gov.au/successfulapplicants

Logos and acknowledgement

An acknowledgement of the Tasmanian Government should be used in any material associated with the project. For more information, visit: www.arts.tas.gov.au/logos

After the project

All grant recipients are required to complete an acquittal report within three months of completing the project.

Questions

Please phone Arts Tasmania on 03 6165 6666 if you have any questions about your grant, or if you wish to seek feedback on your application.

I wish you every success with your project.

Yours sincerely
